Re: United States v. Natalya Grabovskaya
16 Cr. 755 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

The Government writes, with the consent of the defense, to request jointly that the status date for Natalya Grabovskaya be adjourned to July 23, 2020.

Defendant Grabovskaya pled guilty in the above-referenced case on November 15, 2016. On May 15, 2019, shortly after the conclusion of the trial before Your Honor against two of her co-conspirators, Paul J. Mathieu and Hatem Behiry, Grabovskaya and the Government jointly requested that the Court schedule Grabovskaya's sentencing to follow those of the trial defendants. Several adjournments have ensued. Since Grabovskaya's sentencing was last rescheduled, the Court has rescheduled the sentencing of Behiry for July 21, 2020. Once Behiry is sentenced, the Government will be in a position of provide a submission to the Probation Office pursuant to Section 5K1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines, and to ask the Court to schedule a sentencing.

Respectfully submitted,

GEOFFREY S. BERMAN
United States Attorney

Application Granted. The parties shall file a joint status letter on July 23, 2020. The Clerk of the Court is directed to terminate the letter motion at docket number 23.

Dated: June 17, 2020
